A Brand New Story To Tell

Radomonte is an Italian luxury brand of designer mixers, accessories and products for Wellness made of stainless steel. A vision that originates from the thirty years of experience in the production of mixers by GEDA, the parent company of the brand, to give shape to collections of high quality products that combine contemporary craftsmanship with technically innovative and environmentally friendly solutions. Geda products are produced of brass.
The result are design products that have been studied up to the smallest detail, where refined creativity and timeless charm coexist.

Creative research becomes an extreme act of freedom. The design of Radomonte products comes from a conscious and careful study of style, which then becomes an act of rebellion. We twist the geometries to reach the essence of the shape. Each product becomes the celebration of a story and manages to transform everyday life an extraordinary experience.

Functionality. Design. Innovation.

Radomonte collections are born from the experience and creativity of Stefano Macchion - designer and founder of the brand - who, starting from the maturity of the company's skills in the production through the exclusive use of steel, wanted to give life to a project that celebrated the best of Made in Italy craftsmanship in the design tapware sector.

Radomonte products are made exclusively in stainless steel. An inert material, therefore able to remain unchanged over time. In fact, its extreme surface resistance protects it from the corrosive action of rust and external agents, guaranteeing an eternal duration.

Stefano Macchion -Designer & Founder

Koè

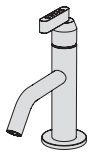

Industrial style for of the novelties of the GEDA collections.
The inspiration for Koè comes from the charm of the lofts in New York, with their intertwining exposed pipes. A detail of character is the engraved handle, which recalls the lever of an old style valve.
